*PASSING OF THE PEACE

INTROIT      “I Come with Joy”      349, v 1
I come with joy, a child of God, forgiven, loved, and free. The life of Jesus to recall, in love laid down for me, in love laid down for me.

CALL TO WORSHIP
Why do the nations rage and the peoples chase anxious things?
We come to rest in the presence of God.
The Holy One is not shaken by the noise of the world.
God’s love is stronger than every power.
Blessed are those who take refuge in the Holy.
We come seeking shelter, trust, and peace.

Come, let us worship the One whose glory cannot fade. We gather in wonder before the light of God.
*HYMN	“We Have Come at Christ’s Own Bidding”		182
*INVOCATION Radiant God, on the mountain, your presence shone with a beauty beyond words. Your light did not overwhelm. It revealed what love makes possible. Quiet our anxious striving. Open our eyes to glimpses of your glory already among us. Where we are weary, give us wonder. Where we are uncertain, give us trust. Shine your gentle, transforming light in this place today. Amen.

INVITATION TO GENEROSITY On the mountain, the disciples were given a glimpse of what was true, and a moment of wonder and hope that pointed toward what was still to come. As we give today, we do so not from fear, but from hope, trusting that even ordinary gifts can reflect holy light.
OFFERTORY MUSIC	“Prière no.6”	Jacques Lemmens
*Doxology: Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below; Praise God above, you heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
*PRAYER OF DEDICATION God of shining presence, receive these gifts and the love behind them. Use them to bring hope where it is thin, healing where it is needed, and dignity where it has been lost. Let what we offer become a small foretaste of the resurrection life you are already unfolding among us. Amen.
*CLOSING HYMN
*BENEDICTION Go now with hearts open to wonder. When the path feels uncertain, remember that moments of glory are promises, not accidents. The light you glimpse today is already leading you toward resurrection. Go in peace to notice where God’s glory is quietly shining.

4th ANNUAL TPAN FUNDRAISER

Rooted in resilience across generations, we continue to show up — grounded in care, community, and hope — working toward a South Dakota where transgender people are not pushed to leave the place they call home. Generations of trans lives, families, and futures are rooted here. The 4th Annual TPAN Fundraising Gala is an opportunity to strengthen the capacity to respond to discriminatory legislation, expand life-saving resources, and stand alongside trans South Dakotans. Together, we are investing in a future where trans people are safe, supported, and able to live openly and authentically right here in South Dakota. UCCV has been invited to sponsor a table at the Gala on Friday March 13. If you would like to contribute toward sponsoring our table, please email the church office at uccv@uccvermillion.org.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST VERMILLION

226 E Main St, Vermillion, SD 57069 - (605)624-3120 - www.uccvermillion.org

Dear Church Family of UCC Vermillion,

It is hard to believe that it has only been a little over two and a half years since I first arrived here — and yet, in so many ways, it feels like a lifetime of holy work packed into a short season. Together we have worshiped through grief and joy, navigated uncertainty, welcomed new families, grown children in faith, invigorated systems and ministries, and kept showing up for one another even when the world outside our doors felt loud and fragile.

I want to begin by saying thank you. Thank you for trusting me with your stories, your prayers, your hopes, and your disappointments. Thank you for the music and the laughter in LAF, the sacred hush of candlelight, the honest questions in Bible study, and the many small moments that rarely make headlines but make up the soul of a church. I am deeply proud of the ministry we have shared.

After much prayer, conversation, and discernment with my family, I have accepted a call to serve a church in Nebraska, information about which will be released in a few days. This was not a decision made lightly, and is a choice and a move that is necessary for the wellbeing of my family at this season of our lives.

My final Sunday with you will be May 17.

I know this news is tender. UCC Vermillion has not just been my call - it has been my community. I believe in this church. I believe in your resilience, your creativity, your generosity, and your deep love for one another. I am confident that you will continue to thrive, and that God is already preparing the next chapter of our stories.

There will be time to say more, to grieve together, to celebrate what has been, and to bless what is coming. For now, please receive this letter as it is offered — with gratitude, honesty, and abiding affection.

With love and deep respect,
Kaite Miller
